(Verse 1)
                   G#m
There's a Port on a Western bay
                       D
And it serves a hundred ships a day
                      G#m
Lonely sailors pass the time away
    F#m A
And talk about their homes
                       G#m
And there's a girl in this harbor town
And she works layin' whiskey down
                         G#m
They say Brandy fetch another round
She serves them whiskey and wine
Chorus
The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl)
What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl)
Your eyes could steal a sailor from the sea (do,do...)
Verse 3
               G#m
Brandy wears a braided chain
        F#m
Made of finest silver from the north of Spain
            G#m
A locket that bears the name
      F#m
Of the man that Brandy loves
Verse 4
              G#m
He came on a summer's day
        F#m
                  D
Bringing gifts from far away
                               C#m
But he made it clear he couldn't stay
   F#m
No harbor was his home

BRANDY Elliot Lurie

Chorus 2 C#m The sailors say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl) What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl) But my life my lover my lady is the sea (do,do...) Bridge E/BYeah Brandy used to watch his eyes When he told his sailor's stories She could feel the ocean fall and rise She saw it's raging glory But he had always told the truth Lord he was an honest man And Brandy does her best to understand (do,do...) Verse 5 G#m C#m At night when the bars close down Brandy walks through a silent town And loves a man who's not around She still can hear him say she hears him say Chorus 3 C#m She hears him say Brandy you're a fine girl (you're a fine girl) What a good wife you would be (such a fine girl) But my life my lover my lady is the sea (do,do...)
