

JOE KNOWS HOW TO LIVE

Intro: E

Verse 1

B E
Blue Monday morning at the factory gate
B E
Almost time to clock in
B E
The boys were bettin' that Joe wouldn't show
A B
They'd seen him over the weekend
E
He had four new tires on his old Cadillac
A
Betty the waitress and some clothes in the back
E
And a dashboard full of roadmaps of Mexico
B E
Yeah, Joe knows how to live

Chorus

C#m G#m
He said women were made to love
A E B/D#
Money is made to spend
C#m G#m A C#
Life is something buddy you will never live again
F#m
Yeah I've got to admit it
B E
Joe knows how to live

Verse 2

By now they'll be down at the ocean
He and Betty stretched out some where
The only blue in his eye is the blue moonlight
Bouncin' off Betty's blonde hair
Oh, I can just see them rolling 'round on the sand
I never thought I was a jealous man
But when I think what he's doin' and what I'm not
Lord, I'm jealous a lot

Verse 3

Now Betty's back home with her mother
Joe's back on the assembly line
But he brings in his pictures and his mexican hat
Just to remind us sometimes
